Sunday Service Reaches The Lost

"I re-said this prayer. You have been what I needed to hear. I am so thankful to have let God's voice be heard. I can't express in words how much I needed it. I am raising two boys and I want them to be God's!" -Name Withheld

That was just one quote we received following a tremendous Sunday Morning Service at the World's Championship Duck Calling contest in Stuttgart, AR. In fact, seven people filled out cards indicating they wished to follow Christ and His will for their lives. At least one of those people inviting Jesus into their hearts was a contestant in the duck calling contest from California! And all the praise and glory and honor goes to our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ!

We have delivered those cards to the churches in the areas where they are from and we pray that God's people will help to inspire, encourage and motivate them to continue on the journey toward becoming the people God called them to be.

You never know what's going to happen when you step out in faith in response to God's calling. It rained, cold and constantly, the entire day Saturday and was just above freezing when we woke up Sunday morning. But we knew this was where God called us to be and once the praise band from Stuttgart's The Lighthouse Church began singing the crowd of more than 60 hearty souls began to arrive and take their seats. Warmed by coffee, camo jackets and more than a few blankets they sat listening attentively to every word that came out of the mouth of our speaker, KingdomDog's Hank Hough. As he and his fellow preacher, Bandera, began to demonstrate God's love to them you could feel the power of the Holy Spirit moving through the crowd. It was an incredible time. Thank you for your prayers and your support of this ministry. It truly was a weekend of thanks. Ministry in Focus: KINGDOM DOG MINISTRIES

It's not too difficult to understand what makes powerful. Put simply it is a man and his dog teaching the power of obedience. What really makes Kingdom Dog unique though is the ability to relate to every man, woman and child in attendance no matter where they are in life.

Kingdom Dog's History is very interesting, but what is most exciting to us is where God has taken it. Today Hank and the Dogs travel across the nation speaking in churches, schools, various outdoor events, men's groups, women's groups, youth and children activities, evangelistic programs, and many other places. It has been both exciting and humbling to witness Hank being used of God to teach such simple yet life changing concepts. To contact Hank and his dogs for your next event visit: www.kingdomdog.com.
